RE: Helen Stewart – Precise Catering

To Whom It May Concern:

It is with pride, I recommend Precise Catering as a responsible, dedicated progressive business. Ms. Stewart and her staff, time and time again have surpassed the basic requirements necessary to fulfill our needs. They go beyond satisfying our business requirements because their talent and excellent customer service are always impressive. We have been enjoying their business for many years and anticipate their continued service.

Their superb culinary genius allows them to continue to prepare quality food which is always fresh, nutritious, delicious and organic when possible; providing their client with a phenomenal variety of aesthetic beauty to go along with their superb dining experience.

We have dined from their breakfast menu, to serving dinner for staff and family, for all occasions from holidays to banquet events. Precise Catering always goes the extra mile by providing decorations and efficient staff to make our events spectacular, memorable and cost-effective.

Their objective is to accommodate each catering request, professionally meet any challenges that may arise and work within their client's budget; which keeps Precise Catering always first in line when a deliverable is necessary.

Over time, their company has profoundly proven they meet our deliverable expectations making them the number one catering vendor to go to.

Sincerely,

Rita Grayson
